SLOVENIA'S HIŠE S TRADICIJO (HOUSES OF TRADITION) CORDIALLY INVITES YOU TO EXPERIENCE A UNIQUE, RICHER HOLIDAY ATMOSPHERE IN A TRADITIONAL ENVIRONMENT.

Houses of Tradition are distinguished by tradition and character - the legacy these houses inherited from their former owners. Tradition is reflected in the preserved architecture of the building and decoration, and through the customs and habits passed down the generations. The high standard of accommodation is complemented by the carefully preserved natural environment and diverse, healthy, lovingly home-grown food and excellent Slovenian wines on offer. At your request, the host shall prepare a traditional dinner, during which you will become acquainted with the history of the house and the location itself.

Houses of tradition are located throughout Slovenia and are an appropriate starting point in order to learn about the diversity of Slovenian cultural and natural heritage, as well as Slovenian cuisine. Most of the Houses have accommodation available, but some can only be viewed by prior arrangement. There is an ethnological collection on display and, more often than not, the hosts will welcome you in the time-honoured custom, share with you the way life was in the past and treat you to traditional dishes. Most Houses of Tradition are located in the countryside, away from the city rush, where you can take time out to enjoy the peace and unspoiled natural beauty of Slovenia, participate in traditional tasks and practices, or opt for some of the many outdoor activities on offer such as cycling, hiking, fishing, riding, playing golf, swimming, skiing, cross-country skiing, and so forth...

Houses of tradition are classified according to the type of building or building complex they fall under, as follows:

- C: plain rural buildings
- B: country estate houses and stately homes
- A: castles, mansions and manors

However, each House of Tradition is also categorised into five groups based on the traditional identification of architecture, paraphernalia, customs and cuisine.

WE INVITE YOU TO PERUSE THE RANGE OF SERVICES AVAILABLE AT THE HOUSES OF TRADITION AND CHOOSE A SUITABLE SPOT FOR A RELAXED HOLIDAY.

WELCOME!
